

Mr. Ford, of Baltimore county, presented a petition from Lemuel Offutt and eighty-nine others, citizens of Baltimore county, for a bridge over the Patapsco river at Woodstock;

Which was referred to the Howard and Baltimore county delegations.

Mr. Ford, of Cecil, presented a petition from E. L. Lewis, John W. Jackson, John Gamble, and twenty-seven other citizens of Cecil county, praying for the passage of an act to establish a uniform system of Common Schools in Cecil county;

Which was referred to the committee on Education.

Mr. Davis presented a petition from Wm. A. Miller, E. W. Mahony, Isaac B. Brist, and twenty-five other citizens of Cecil county, in favor of a uniform system of Common Schools for said county;

Which was referred to the committee on Education.

Mr. Stirling presented the memorial of sundry merchants of Baltimore, in regard to the agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies;

Which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Alexander presented a memorial of Harlow W. Heath, President of Newton University, protesting against the repeal of the act of Incorporation of said University;

Which was referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Meginnis presented a petition from Thomas C. Lynch and one hundred other citizens of Kent county, against the Bridge at Chestertown, being made free to the citizens of Kent and Queen Anne's counties; delegation.

Which was referred to the Kent and Queen Anne's counties

Mr. Rogers presented a memorial of A. E. Warner, President, and Nicholas Brewer, Secretary of the Association of "the Defenders of Baltimore in 1814," praying the passage of a Resolution to request the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State, to use all proper exertions to secure the passage of an act of Congress granting pensions to the soldiers and officers of the war of 1812;

Which was referred to the committee on Pensions.

Mr. Spence presented the following: